

Synopsis of upcoming Singapore films

Film	Synopsis
Warrior of Love Director: Derrick Lui Produced by: SIMF Management	A race car nicknamed Ares (Greek god of war) has stood the test of time to bring numerous victories to three generations of the Lin family. It also bears witness to the ruthless murder of Feilong, along with the tragic love story of Xinni and her beau Ruijie. If cars could talk, Dina would have an easier time uncovering the truth behind the deaths of her grandfather and parents.
The Songs We Sang Director: Eva Tang Produced by: The Songs We Sang Pte Ltd	The Songs We Sang takes a vivid look into the journey of Xinyao (literally “songs by Singapore Youth” in Mandarin), documenting this powerful artistic movement from the events leading to its birth in the 1980s, flourishing amongst the Mandarin-speaking community throughout the island, reaching beyond its shores, and leaving an indelible mark on the culture of a young nation.
My Love, Sinema Director: Tan Ai Leng Produced by: Scout Pictures and FLY Entertainment	This inspirational romance drama depicts the story of a starry-eyed 20-year-old Qiang (Tosh Zhang) who moves from his kampung village to the city where his passion for cinema is ignited. He also encounters lifelong friendship and meets the love of his life, Chinese teacher Xiao Wei (Cheryl Wee). Decades later, an enthusiastic young filmmaker May (Cherry Ngan) chances upon Qiang, now an old man, and discovers his inspiring life story...
Lucky Boy Director: Boris Boo Produced by: Clover Films, mm2 Entertainment, J Team Productions, and FOX International Channels Asia Pacific Limited.	Lucky Boy chronicles several decades of the lives of Lin Yu, his family, friends and Qingqing - the girl whom he falls in love with in primary school and continues pinning for throughout his tumultuous and eventful life. Lin Yu is always one step behind others and surrounded by misfortune... Will Lin Yu, the destined "unlucky" boy, be able to change his fate?
The Tenants Director: Mike Koh Produced by: Digital Blowfish	The Tenants is an original dark psychological thriller. A young woman rents out rooms in the bungalow her parents left her after her parents'

	death. At first, the tenants reside peacefully under the same roof, but things are never as it seems. Beneath the tranquil façade, the characters harbour secrets that unravels and escalates into a maelstrom of intrigue, suspense, and action.
Young & Fabulous Director: Kelvin Sng Produced by: Encore Films, SIMF Management and Golden Village Pictures	A coming-of-age story of a trio of teenage friends who overcome all challenges and obstacles to fulfil their dreams. Along the way, they learn about themselves, the meaning of friendship, the management of parent-child and teacher-student relationships, as well as the need to have courage to stand up for what they believe in. In this competitive era, how will the younger generation find courage and confidence, have dreams and hopes, in a society that values practicality over creativity?
4Love Directors: M Raihan Halim, Sam Loh, Gilbert Chan and Daniel Yam Produced by: mm2 Entertainment	Four Singaporean directors. Four love stories. One movie. Each director tells a story of love through the experiences of teenagers, young adults, mid-lifers and the elderly.