

Annex A: Migration Exercise Timeline

22 April 2008	Mobile Operators start to inform customers under the current Call-Forwarding solution on the migration exercise Customers will need to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• decide if they wish to keep the old number from the previous mobile operator (N1) or the new number issued by the current mobile operator (N2)• inform their friends, family and business contacts about their choice of number, to remain reachable at that number
14 May 2008	Customers under the current Call-Forwarding number portability solution must inform their mobile operators about their choice of number (N1 or N2) by 14 May 2008. Otherwise, N2 will be assigned to them by default
14 May – 12 June 2008	Mobile Operators to prepare and work on migration of customers under the Call-Forwarding solution to Full Mobile Number Portability
13 June 2008	Launch of Full Mobile Number Portability for all consumers to enjoy