

DPTM Certification Checklist

The DPTM Certification Checklist aims to provide Applicant Organisations with an understanding of their readiness in applying for the DPTM certification.

Applicant should assess its readiness using the DPTM Certification Checklist before applying for the certification (i.e. Having “yes” answer to all the questions is an indication that an organisation is ready and can apply for DPTM).

Note that answering “yes” to all questions may not necessarily equate to meeting all the certification requirements.

The assessment will also require the Applicant Organisation to demonstrate and provide evidence for the followings:

- Documented data protection policies and processes; and
- Demonstrate that data protection policies and processes are implemented and practised on the ground.
