First Schedule – Conditions

1. This Licence is subject to the Telecommunications Act 1999 (the "Act") and the Regulations, and shall remain valid for the duration of this Licence, unless cancelled prior thereto by IDA in accordance with the Act or Regulations, or the conditions herein.
2. The Licensee hereby represents and warrants that the information and/or documents furnished and supplied for the purposes of applying for this Licence is true and accurate.
3. This Licensee and all persons operating the Stations and Network, which the Licensee is authorised by this Licence to establish, install and operate, shall observe and comply with the Act, the Regulations and the 3G Spectrum Right.
4. This Licensee shall not permit or cause any unauthorised person to operate or have access to the Stations and/or Network. The Licensee shall ensure that persons authorised to operate the Stations and/or Network observe the conditions of this Licence at all times.
5. The Stations and Network shall be used only with the emissions at the frequency(s), of the class(es) and power specified in this Licence.
6. The Licensee shall ensure that the equipment comprised in the Stations and Network shall at all times comply with all applicable emission standards and technical specifications or requirements specified by IDA, from time to time, in relation thereto.
7. The Licensee shall maintain up-to-date records of the list of the Stations, including installation location of the Stations, name of the equipment manufacturer, model, serial number of the equipment, frequency(s), output power, date of purchase and date of disposal of the equipment. This list shall be made available for inspection by IDA as and when requested. The Licensee shall also be required to submit the updated list in the manner specified by IDA at least one month prior to the expiry of this Licence. This Licence shall only be renewed upon submission of the aforesaid list to IDA.
8. The Licensee shall permit or ensure that permission is granted to an authorised person of IDA upon production of proof of identity, to enter any building, premises, compound or other place, vehicle, vessel or aircraft where the Stations and Network are installed or are being installed, to enable the said authorised person to inspect, examine or test any equipment comprised in the Stations and Network.
9. The equipment comprised in the Stations and Network shall be designed, constructed, maintained or used such that the Stations and Network, when used, shall comply with the Act and Regulations and not cause interference to any other licensed or authorised stations or networks or telecommunication installation or equipment which may be lawfully owned, used or operated by any other person. The Licensee shall permit an authorised officer of IDA to inspect the equipment comprised in the Stations and Network in order to determine whether the interference is in fact caused by the said equipment.
10. The Licensee shall notify IDA of any intended change of address of the Licensee and any persons authorised by the Licensee to operate the Stations and Network, as the case may be, or any proposed change in any of the equipment comprised in the Stations and Network or any proposed change in the operating radio frequencies, the mode of transmission or usage, and the location at which the Stations and Network are installed, and before such change is effected, the Licensee shall obtain the prior written approval of IDA.
11. The Licensee and all persons authorised by the Licensee to operate the Stations and Network shall ensure that the Stations and Network and the equipment comprised therein are not used for unlawful purposes or misused in any way.
12. The Licensee shall ensure that the Stations and Network, including the equipment comprised therein, the operating radio frequencies and the location at which the Stations or Network is installed are not tampered with or modified in any manner unless IDA's written approval has been obtained. As and when directed by IDA, the Licensee shall, at its own cost, conduct inspections on the equipment in order to satisfy IDA that the equipment has not been tampered with or modified.
13. The Stations and Network, and this Licence shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any duly authorised officer of IDA.
14. IDA may vary, modify, suspend and cancel any of the terms of this Licence in accordance with the Act and the Regulations.
15. When the Licensee ceases to operate the Stations or Network or where this Licence ceases to be valid, the Licensee shall return this Licence to IDA for cancellation and IDA may require the Licensee to seal, disable or dismantle the equipment comprised in the Stations and Network in the presence of any authorised IDA officer.
16. The Licence fee shall be paid in advance and shall not be refundable.
17. This Licensee shall not assign, transfer, sublet or otherwise dispose the benefits of this Licence except with the prior written approval of IDA. The licence shall be under the control of the Licensee unless IDA otherwise permits in writing.
18. The Licensee shall comply with any directions or notifications which IDA may, from time to time, issue.
