

Registration for Radio Amateur Examination

- 1 IMDA has removed the Morse code requirement for HF amateur radio operations with effect from 15 September 2003. As such, the Practical examination on Morse code is no longer required for new applicants for Amateur Station (General Class) Licence. The Written examination is conducted by Singapore Amateur Radio Transmitting Society (SARTS) on behalf of IMDA.
- 2 Candidates who intend to register for Radio Amateur Written examinations may apply to IMDA by completing the application form. Examination will be held on a quarterly basis on second or third Saturday of the month from 10.00 am to 1.00 pm. The location of the examinations will be advised closer to the examination date. The Written Examination's schedule is appended in the application form.
- 3 Upon receipt of valid registration, IMDA will inform the candidate the date, time and venue of examination and payment of examination fee in due course. Please note that the fee will not be refunded to a candidate who withdraws or fails to attend an examination.
- 4 Details and syllabus for the examinations can be found in Radio Amateur Licensing Handbook downloadable via the IMDA website @ <http://www.imda.gov.sg>.
- 5 The fees are as follows:

Radio Amateur Written Examination: $40.00 ($20 for student)
