

Judging Criteria

Open Category

The judging criteria for the Open Category of code::XtremeApps:: 2017 is as follows:

30%	20%	20%	30%
Challenge How well the proposed solution addresses one or more challenge statements	Innovation Key ideas and concepts behind the overall solution design (Example: Demonstrate the following qualities, novel, persuasive, inspiring, empowering, motivating or engaging, etc.)	Value and usability Prospective social or commercial value and user-friendliness (Example: Demonstrate savings, great user experience, or commercial viability, etc.)	Technical features Usage of software / hardware features in terms of development effort or use of technology. Usage of IoT standards in terms of interoperability, portability and sharing of sensing data.

School Category

The judging criteria for the School Category of code::XtremeApps:: 2017 is as follows:

30%	20%	20%	30%
Challenge How well the proposed solution addresses one or more challenge statements	Innovation Key ideas and concepts behind the overall solution design (Example: Demonstrate the following qualities, novel, persuasive, inspiring, empowering, motivating or engaging, etc.)	Value and usability Prospective social or commercial value and user-friendliness (Example: Demonstrate savings, great user experience, or commercial viability, etc.)	Technical features Usage of software / hardware features in terms of development effort or use of technology. Usage of IoT standards in terms of interoperability, portability and sharing of sensing data.

Junior Category

The judging criteria for the Junior Category of code::XtremeApps:: 2017 is as follows:

