

ANNEX A - DO NOT DISTURB EPISODIC SYNOPSIS

1. Perfect Ten (TX 2 Apr, 10pm, Arts Central)

Two virgins who have saved themselves for their wedding night three days away, check into the budget hotel as a quiet and convenient space to discuss last minute arrangements for their nuptials. After eight years of courtship, the “moment” they have been waiting for, in more ways than one, is coming. Like all good Singaporeans, they have meticulously planned every detail of their wedding but soon, they will discover not all things are within their control. The result is madcap mayhem and hilarity. (Cast: Chio Su-Ping, Koey Foo)

2. Hen Night (TX 9 Apr, 10pm, Arts Central)

One would think any hot blooded female would love being locked up in a room with a gorgeous male stripper paid to oblige her every whim and fancy. Mui Leng, a prissy and timid female accountant, who finds herself in this situation when her friends decide this is a perfect hen night gift, does not think so...at first. As the night wears on, she uncovers shocking revelations about herself with her new-found sense of empowerment. (Cast: Serena Ho, Timothy Nga)

3. Lunch Hour (TX 16 Apr, 10pm, Arts Central)

An office affair between a smooth talking lawyer and his beautiful legal assistant finds a love nest in a budget hotel room near their office. They are in contented marriages but after giving in to a night of passion, find themselves incredibly bound to each other. They find themselves falling for each other but are both unable to leave their spouses. Best of both worlds or belonging to none? (Cast: Andrea De Cruz, Adrian Pang)

4. Happy Sweet Forty (TX 23 Apr, 10pm, Arts Central)

Valerie, a high-flying, successful but single workaholic approaches her fortieth birthday feeling as if she's accomplished nothing- her virginity a painful reminder of missed romantic opportunities. Determined to make a last ditch attempt at discovering a bit about romance, and a lot about lust, she orchestrates a meeting at a budget hotel room with her ex-junior college classmate, Rodney, the stud of the class. (Cast: Noorlinah Mohd, Lim Yu-Beng)

5. The Break (TX 30 Apr, 10pm, Arts Central)

Some of the darkest, ugliest and greyest sides of a relationship are revealed when two long-time partners head towards a break-up - especially when one wants out and the other does not. When Meng offers little reason for wanting to run off to London by himself, he and Kris check into a budget hotel to avoid arguing in front of the kids. They descend into the depths of broken promises, renegotiate new aspirations, wants and dreams in the course of one intensely painful and probably the longest night of their lives. (Cast: Sol Foo, Casey Lim)

6. One-Night Stand (TX 7 May, 10pm, Arts Central)

Two young, attractive strangers, a seemingly naive girl from Malaysia and a backpacker from Australia who don't even speak the same language, burst into a budget hotel room in a state of heightened passion, eager to experience everything a one night stand promises- great sex with no commitments. But anonymous intimacy can be a dangerous game and as the night progresses, it becomes obvious that the two have found their match in each other. Who will win in the game to achieve their own hidden agendas? (Cast: Yeo Yann Yann, Andy Keegan)

7. The Prank (TX 14 May, 10pm, Arts Central)

A car mechanic mysteriously holes himself up in a budget hotel room for weeks, refusing to see anyone, idling his time away. Nothing seems to get him out of his rut. By accident, he lets a massage girl into the room and she stubbornly refuses to leave him alone. She soon becomes intrigued by his inexplicable behaviour and he starts to seek solace in her company while they spend their time making inane prank calls. This bittersweet tale shows how something infinitely meaningful can emerge from the unlikeliest of moments. (Cast: Chermaine Ang, Mark Lee)

8. Recollections (TX 21 May, 10pm, Arts Central)

The budget hotel is slated for demolition. A new, swanky five-star establishment is in the pipeline to take its place. Rodney, the architect from Happy Sweet Forty, is in charge of the construction and design of this project. As research into the experiences others have had of the budget hotel room, Rodney invites some past occupants back, and with their permission, records their recollections of the time spent in this place. In so doing, how the lives of our seven couples have evolved since they walked out of Room 545 is revealed. (Cast: All)

9. The Making Of Do Not Disturb (TX 28 May, 10pm, Arts Central)

This half-hour special chronicles the behind-the-scenes on the set of Do Not Disturb. It gathers the experiences of this multi-disciplinary cast and crew on a journey less travelled in putting together this unique improvisational drama.
