

Ms Aileen Chia (谢爱玲)
Infocomm Development Authority of Singapore

Ms Aileen Chia is the Assistant Chief Executive and Deputy Director-General (Telecoms and Post) of the IDA. She will be the Director-General (Telecoms and Post) from 1 January 2016. She oversees the Policy and Competition Development Group, which is responsible for the creation of a competitive, internationally-connected and trusted environment for the development of the infocomm industry in Singapore.

Ms Chia is also a member on the Personal Data Protection Commission. The Commission is set up to promote and enforce personal data protection so as to foster an environment of trust among businesses and consumers, contributing to a vibrant Singapore economy.

She holds a Bachelor Degree in Economics (Honours) and a Masters of Public Policy from the National University of Singapore.