

Problem is not with the Residential Listing Directory (where individuals can request for unlisting) but with the Business Directory. The listing of a business fax no. can invite countless junk faxes, day and night. Many businesses have resorted to not specifying which of their phone nos. are used for faxes in the directory. IDA should have some regulations against fax centers that send out faxes/emails on behalf of clients.

Kemquip Engineering