

Annex B - Full name list of the SG100WIT List

S/No	Name	Designation	Bio
1.	AGRAWAL, AVNI	Chief Technical Officer, Sixsense	At SixSense, Avni sets the company's vision and works extensively on product development and data-driven solutions. She and her team use AI and IoT analytics to help manufacturers reduce quality issues and suggest real time corrective action.
2.	ALBANO, ALESSANDRA	Director of Sales and Marketing, Chainstack	Alessandra believes that blockchain is the next big disruptor in outer space because the technology can leverage space infrastructure to amplify the reach and increase the resilience of blockchain.
3.	ANDRIESSE, MARJET	Managing Director of Asia Pacific, Telstra	With over 25 years of experience in tech companies in various leadership positions, Marjet focuses on empowering the people she works with. She believes in encouraging their strengths and finding areas that they can excel in.
4.	ANG, AI KIAR	Data Scientist and AI solutions developer, IBM Manufacturing Solutions	Ai Kiar plans and executes cutting-edge development to advance the state-of-the-art in machine perception in acoustic science. She also designs next-gen acoustic technical architectures and assists in developing low to high fidelity prototypes.
5.	ANG, MUI KIM	CEO, Assurity Trusted Solutions	Mui Kim champions Agile Methodologies and user-centred UX designs in the organisations she works with. In 2019, she led a mission team to develop a workforce transformation plan for 1,000 ICT professionals to train them in digital skills.
6.	BALASINGAM, UMA THANA	Vice President, Partner & Commercial Organization, Asia Pacific and Japan, VMware	Uma is a staunch advocate of advancing the ambitions of women in the workplace – especially women in STEM – through community engagements involving men, women and organizations to craft solutions that level the playing field.
7.	BANDLA, AISHWARYA	Head, Translational Core, The N.1 Institute for Health, National University of Singapore	Aishwarya is a bioengineering researcher in the field of digital health. Together with clinical collaborators, she has developed a wearable device to prevent a severe neurological side effect of chemotherapy, potentially benefitting millions of cancer survivors.
8.	BANDOPADHYAY, JEETA	Co-Founder & COO, Tookitaki	With a vision to create safe, sustainable societies, Jeeta cofounded regulatory technology (RegTech) startup Tookitaki at the age of 25. Through its award-winning Anti-Money Laundering Suite (AMLS), the company wants to root out the evils of money laundering that jeopardises millions of lives every year.
9.	BARGER, RACHEL	President, Southeast Asia, SAP	At SAP Southeast Asia's Singapore base, Rachel is responsible for driving its strategy, customer operations and accelerating customer transformation into intelligent enterprises. She supports diversity through SAP's Diversity & Inclusion initiatives including SAP Business Women's Network.
10.	BOSE, ANKITI	Co-Founder and CEO, Zilingo	Ankiti founded Zilingo in 2015 with the aim of creating an e-commerce site that sellers could use to reach a wider pool of customers around the world. She also expanded Zilingo's services to the B2B sector by removing supply chain inefficiencies. After the COVID-19 outbreak, she redirected Zilingo's network to procure and supply personal protective equipment for hospitals worldwide.

11.	CHA, VIRGINIA	Adjunct Professor of Entrepreneurship, NUS, INSEAD	Virginia's recent work has been in angel investing and as Academic Director for SMART Academy (Singapore-MIT Alliance for Research and Technology Centre). She also teaches at NUS and INSEAD and is a sought-after speaker and advisor for technology and business forums.
12.	CHAN, SZE SZE CHELSEA	Founder, FoodZaps Technology	Chelsea is an entrepreneur with a background in user experience focused product management and project management. FoodZaps is the first patented DIY (Do-It-Yourself) hybrid restaurant management solution with over 70,000 registered users worldwide.
13.	CHIA, AILEEN	Deputy Chief Executive, IMDA	Aileen, Deputy Chief Executive, IMDA oversees the regulation of the telecommunications and postal sectors in Singapore and, promotes fair and effective competition. She recently led IMDA's 5G Call for Proposal, a major milestone for Singapore to develop the next generation of connectivity infrastructure and position Singapore as a leading digital economy.
14.	CHIN-PARRY, CAROLYN	Digital Innovation Leader, PwC Singapore	Carolyn is a digital leader and transformation expert. She engages the tech community by sharing knowledge on strategy, emerging technologies and change management. Carolyn also advocates preparing for the future of work through an innovative culture and digital upskilling.
15.	CHONG, YOKE SIN	President, SCS; Managing Partner, Iglobe Partners	Yoke Sin has brought big projects to the public sector and other organisations and is involved with SGTech and SCS, Singapore's two leading ICT associations. She works to get support for ICT professionals' continuous learning and upgrading.
16.	CHUA, HUI XIANG	Senior Analytics, Essence	Hui Xiang is a data analytics expert who is reaching out to the community to acquaint schoolgirls with data science. She was a recipient of the KDD Impact Program award for bringing data science into a high school curriculum.
17.	CHUA, SOCK KOONG	Group CEO, Singtel	Sock Koong heads Singtel, which has grown under her leadership from a Singapore-based telecoms company to a regional MNC with significant stakes in the leading telecom companies in Australia, India, Indonesia, the Philippines and Thailand.
18.	CHUA, VIVIEN	Chief Technology Officer, Shenton Insurance Brokers	A leading technology expert in computational modelling, simulation and data analytics, Vivien is spearheading digital transformation of the direct insurance and reinsurance business. She is involved in insurance/ reinsurance placements, and risk management consulting for regional corporate clients.
19.	CONDAMINE, ANNE-LAURE	Production Director, Ubisoft Singapore	Anne-Laure champions gender diversity in the gaming industry where she participates in panels and networking events to address gender disparity in STEM. She is producing AAA games by pioneering production methods and new development processes within the gaming industry.
20.	CONROY, ANGELA	Chief Executive Officer, Notarum	Founded in 2018, Notarum automates corporate due diligence with the use of AI to manage client onboarding. Angela envisions this solution as one platform for millions of companies across dozens of industries to undertake due diligence.
21.	DHAMIRAH, LIYANA	Founder, Virtual Assistants Singapore	After taking online entrepreneurship courses, Liyana founded home-based start-up Virtual Assistants Singapore in 2014. She and her colleagues assist clients with business operations, helping them reduce overheads by paying only for the services they need.

22.	DONGMEI, ANNIE AN	Solutions Architect, Amazon Web Services	Annie aims to help ASEAN enterprises adopt modern IT architecture. Her professional work at AWS focuses on enabling digital innovation in enterprises, and she is a strong advocate for enabling next-gen coders and women in IT.
23.	GOH, WYNTHIA	Head Of Next Digital, NCS	Wynthia is a hybrid technology leader pushing for innovation through the adoption of digital technology. She mentors young executives and mid-career professionals, encouraging lifelong learning in digital skills and knowledge. She also advises startups on their operations and business models.
24.	GONG, ANNA	Founding CEO, Perx Technologies	Anna pivoted Perx successfully from a B2C app to a world-class, enterprise software as a service customer engagement and loyalty platform provider powering major brands. She has taken Perx to eight overseas markets, developed a long-term growth strategy and pushed Perx to new heights as one of the few enterprise SaaS companies from Singapore.
25.	HSU, WYNNE	Director, Institute of Data Science; NUS, Provost's Chair, Professor at the Department of Computing Science, School of Computing NUS	Wynne's early data-mining research has become a classic algorithm taught in today's data-mining text books. She leads the JARVIS-DHL project, which seeks to transform chronic care for diabetes, hypertension and hyperlipidemia with AI.
26.	HUANG, SHAO NING	Partner and Chief Angel, AngelCentral	After exiting her startup JobsCentral in 2014, Shao Ning found a calling as Chief Angel at AngelCentral and as mentor/investor to startups helping with early fundraising and scaling. She has invested in over 40 startups and VCs.
27.	HUNG, STEPHANIE	Senior Vice President, ST Engineering	With a wealth of experience spanning across tech giants, Stephanie drives the business development in cloud computing and platform business models in ST Engineering. Stephanie's passion is also to mentor female professionals and to inspire technology experts, business advocates and young aspiring engineers to embrace tech disruption and to continuously upskill themselves.
28.	JASWAL, ANJU	Global Executive Member, Managing Director, Strategic Planning & Development Office for Southeast Asia, Azbil Corporation	Anju is experienced in delivering advanced technology solutions to MNCs and government agencies. She also focuses on building future talent in Singapore by mentoring students through HBS Club of Singapore Mentorship Program.
29.	JOSHI, SWATI	Principal Data Strategist, Singapore Airlines	Swati is driving the adoption of AI and Analytics at Singapore Airlines, guiding business teams on live projects to leverage AI to create new solutions, and leading the upskilling of employees to create business value through data-driven decision making.
30.	KHANNA, AYESHA	Co-Founder and CEO, Addo AI	Ayesha is an AI specialist and her company has been listed by Forbes as one of Asia's four leading AI firms. It has helped telcos, financial services and logistics companies in Asia automate services and offer more personalised and data-driven products. She believes AI can democratise basic services in smart cities by lowering costs and increasing efficiency.
31.	KODLIUK, TANIA	Chief Science Officer, Dathena Science	Tania co-founded Dathena to help financial, healthcare and other institutions across the world secure their data. She designed a self-driven AI platform, which she calls "Dathena's Brain", to manage continuous data analysis and enable full automation of Data Privacy and Security via a decision-making system.

32.	KOH, DOROTHEA	Founder And CEO, Bot MD	Bot MD is an AI clinical assistant that helps medical professionals get instant answers to their clinical questions. Dorothea's team also built a WhatsApp Bot for COVID-19 patients to report their vital signs.
33.	KOH, SOO BOON	Managing Partner, iGlobePartners	Soo Boon is one of the pioneers of the venture capital industry in tech. She has achieved consistent top-quartile fund returns for her investments. She nurtures and supports women tech leaders and promotes board diversity in tech companies.
34.	KOO, ROSALINE CHOW	Founder, CXA Group	In 2013, Rosaline started CXA and turned it into Asia's leading insurtech start-up with a reported valuation of US$100 million. CXA Group has 800,000 users across 20 countries in Asia, serving more than 600 customers and 200 change agents.
35.	KRISHNASWAMY, SHONALI	Chief Technology Officer, Aida Technologies	Shonali created a world-class analytics company from Singapore. She is a deep-tech researcher having over 100 peer-reviewed papers, and led the largest collection of data scientists at I2R, A*STAR before founding AIDA Technologies.
36.	KWOK, JEN NIE	Chief Executive, Xcellink Pte Ltd	Jen Nie believes that every tech company needs to embrace innovation as a strategic and essential management mindset to thrive under competitive and challenging business conditions. She is also serving as the honorary secretary of the Singapore Enterprise Chapter for SGTech.
37.	KWONG, YUK WAH	Adjunct Professor, NUS School of Computer Science, Advisor to CEO NTUC Club on Digitalisation, former CIO of NTUC	After contributing to major IT initiatives in the public sector, she joined NTUC as its CIO. Yuk Wah is passionate about sharing her knowledge with aspiring computer science students. Since 2008, she has been an Adjunct Professor at the School of Computing, NUS.
38.	LE COTONNEC, CÉLINE	Chief Data and Innovation Officer at Bank of Singapore, Asia's Global Private Bank	Céline oversees Bank of Singapore's data strategy in collaboration with the OCBC Group Customer Analytics and Decisioning and AI Lab. Her mission is to foster a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship while running the Bank's innovation unit.
39.	LEE, DEBBIE	TechTV Network Pte Ltd	Debbie is an accomplished international businesswoman with a proven track record across 20 cities. Under her leadership, TechStorm has grown to reach more than 42 million people and distribute its mobile content to over 26 countries in less than 18 months.
40.	LEE, JANICE MONG LI	Director, National University of Singapore Centre for Trusted Internet and Community, Professor in NUS School of Computing	Mong Li is the co-founder of EyRis, which uses revolutionary technologies for retina image analysis, enabling the assessment of cardio-vascular risk and the detection of diabetic retinopathy, glaucoma-suspect and age-related macular degeneration.
41.	LEE, JENNY	Managing Partner, GGV Capital	Jenny was No. 35 on Forbes' Midas list of the top 100 venture capital investors in 2020, one of nine women on the list. She helped set up GGV's first office in China in 2005 and re-opened GGV's Singapore office in 2019.
42.	LEE, OON LING	Educator/Consultant, Intangibles Consultancy	Oon Ling has trained many students in digital transformation. She is also an entrepreneur, having founded a few startups including Butterfly Kisses, a uniform maker that uses AI to recommend the best fit.
43.	LIM, BEE KWAN	Assistant CEO, GovTech Agency	Bee Kwan focuses on developing strategies to deepen cybersecurity capabilities and strengthening the governance function for government digital services and Smart Nation infrastructure and applications.

44.	LIM, EE LING	Co-Founder, Smarter Me	Ee Ling founded Smarter Me to inspire young children between six and 17 years of age to use coding, robotics, entrepreneurship and design thinking skills to discover themselves, problem-solve, get creative, and collaborate with others.
45.	LIM, JANE	Assistant Chief Executive (Sectoral Transformation), IMDA	Jane works closely with industry and public sector partners to accelerate digital transformation of industry sectors in Singapore. Her recent work to enhance the ICT talent pipeline led her to initiate the SG Women In Tech movement together with industry and community partners.
46.	LIM, RIKA	Lead Level Designer, Ubisoft	A gamer since she was young, Rika has worked on several A-list games that are popular worldwide. She mentors her team and designers in Singapore, the Philippines and Chengdu. She is an active ambassador for the local gaming industry.
47.	LIM, SIERIN	Associate Professor of Bioengineering, School of Chemical and Biomedical Engineering/ Associate Dean (Global Partnerships), Graduate College, NTU	Sierin's passion is in developing bio-based technologies for health and environmental applications. She is a co-founder of POWERS (The Promotion of Women in Engineering, Research, and Science), an MOE-funded initiative aimed at promoting STEM and retaining female STEM talents and a STEM ambassador at United Women Singapore.
48.	LIM, SUN SUN	Professor and Head of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences, Singapore University of Technology & Design	Sun Sun is a professor, former Nominated MP and founding member of the SCS SIG on WiT that seeks to increase gender diversity in the technology sector through mentoring and peer support of female technology professionals.
49.	LIM, VERONICA	Head of Regional Technology, Banking & Lending and Regulatory Technology, Citi Private Bank Asia Pacific	Veronica's international assignments have enabled her to bring together multiple global teams and internal partners across Citi to deliver effective technology solutions for the bank. She is one of the founding members of the Singapore Women in Technology (WIT) network.
50.	LIN, SHU FEN	Co-Founder, Gluu Life	Gluu Life is a P2P platform that allows individuals and small businesses to share connectivity on a rewards model. It works with brands who can sponsor connectivity for communities, supports micro-entrepreneurs and small businesses. Shu Fen was a senior executive from the media and technology sector who has operated million-dollar business units and built product ecosystems.
51.	LIU, JESSICA	Co-President & Regional Head of Commercial, Lazada Group	Jessica currently leads Lazada's commercial division, overseeing platform operations and strategic initiatives for merchant growth. Having led teams in the giants of the eCommerce space such as Alibaba and Amazon, she has an innate understanding of consumers, brands and the ecosystem, allowing her to create distinctive business models.
52.	LIU, PATRICIA	Chief Of Staff And Board Member, Razer Inc.	The only woman in Razer's senior executive team and board of directors, Patricia is responsible for the company's strategic plans and oversees e-commerce, IT, HR, customer service, and the general management of Razer's 16 global offices.
53.	LOW SOH YEN, JANIS	First Vice President, GIS Security Strategy & Risk Assessment, United Overseas Bank, Ltd	For the past 18 years, Janis has been a key security professional, working with technology teams, to spearhead UOB's technology drive. From launching its virtual workforce of robots to initiating the first corporate investment digital advisory service in Singapore, Janis is the go-to-person for information-security related matters at UOB.

54.	LUM, SEOW KHUN	Director, Public Sector Group, Microsoft	Seow Khun may have helmed many local and regional roles with tech MNCs, but she has made the most impact in nurturing the tech community in her various leadership roles at the Singapore Computer Society over the years.
55.	MARLE-ZIZKOVA, JANA	CEO and Co-Founder, Meiro & She Loves Data	Jana has headed tech teams and country operations in the past 25 years. In 2017, she co-founded Meiro, a customer data platform that unifies organisations' customer data. She is passionate about diversity. Her non-profit initiative She Loves Data has helped over 10,000 women start their tech journeys.
56.	MAHTANI, ROSHNI	Founder & Group CEO, theAsianparent	Roshni has over 15 years of media and marketing experience, and is also actively involved in the start-up community as an angel investor, an advisor at Antler and a co-founder of Female Founders Network.
57.	MEHTA, NEHA	Founder, FemTech Partners	Neha has been working pro-bono to help women set up their FinTech start-ups to access and expand their market reach with Femtech. Neha is featured in FinTech 50, 2019 and is one of Asia's 50 Most Influential Women in Renewable Energy, 2020.
58.	MIAO, CHUN YAN	Chair, School of Computer Science and Engineering, Nanyang Technological University	Under Chun Yan's leadership, SCSE has contributed greatly to NTU's top rankings in AI, computer science research, citation impact and education. She has won awards and attracted large investments for the strides she has made in AI in the health, ageing and education sectors. She is also a Singapore Computer Society council member.
59.	MITRA, TULIKA	Provost's Chair Professor, NUS	A visionary researcher and thought leader, Tulika is the editor-in-chief of the top journal in her field and is a member of numerous international advisory boards. She was instrumental in establishing NUS's multi-disciplinary computer engineering programme that develops future-ready graduates.
60.	MO, HUISI ELISA	Programme Director, Electronics Systems Division, DSO National Laboratories	The youngest engineer at 24 to receive a PHD scholarship in DSO, Elisa is one of only three female programme directors in her division. She spearheads the development of advanced communication systems that enhances Singapore's defence capabilities.
61.	NEO, JAMIE	Director of Engineering, HP Inc	The only female engineer at HP's wafer fabrication plant almost 30 years ago, Jamie now leads a team that utilises new technologies like data analytics, 3D printing and robotics in manufacturing. She also actively mentors HP's female employees.
62.	NGIAM, LE NA	Deputy Chief Executive (Operations), Defence Science and Technology Agency (DSTA)	Le Na has vast experience serving in various roles at DSTA, Mindef and the RSAF. She plays a pivotal role in delivering cutting-edge solutions to our military and in expanding collaborations to harness technology for defence and public-sector applications.
63.	NGIAM, XINWEI	Regional Head of Marketplace and Economics / Head of Business Operations, Grab	Xinwei leads Grab's marketplace, economics and business operations functions. Her core mission is to create value for Grab across multiple dimensions – from driving efficiency and sustainability of the deliveries and transport businesses through strategic initiatives and products; to helping Grab stay agile and focused.
64.	NILSDOTTER, KARIN	CEO & Future Astronaut, Spaceport Sweden	Karin is passionate about advancing humanity in space and using technology to empower communities on Earth. She co-founded Hack Space for the Planet with SGInnovate and Embassy of Sweden, to find solutions to UN Sustainable Development Goals. Karin is one of 35 leaders globally serving as mentor to UN Space4Women Network to advance women and girls in space.

65.	NURUL, JIHADAH HUSSAIN	Founder, The Codette Project	Nurul is the founder of The Codette Project, a non-profit ground-up initiative that aims to get more minority/Muslim women into technology. She strives to create better communities, networks and opportunities to help reclaim what success looks like for underrepresented women.
66.	ONG, CANDICE	Chief Commercial Officer, Shopback	Candice plays a critical role within ShopBack's, core business, leading country teams across the region and helming regional marketing efforts, which accelerated ShopBack's growing presence. Before that, she led Zalora's growth to become a major fashion conglomerate in her five-year tenure there.
67.	PAN, YAOZHANG	Head Of Data Science, Shopee	Yaozhang grounds Shopee with her team of data scientists that constantly improves user experience and optimises ROI for the e-commerce platform. She cultivates a culture of learning in her team, supporting them in their journeys of personal development.
68.	RAMASAMY, SAVITHA	Group Leader, Institute for Infocomm Research, A*STAR	Internationally recognised in the field of engineering and technology, Dr. Ramasamy Savitha is a data expert with impactful research in the fields of data mining, artificial neural networks and artificial intelligence. She also mentors several NUS and NTU PhD students.
69.	ROBERS, LEANNE	Co-Founder And Co-Ceo, She Loves Tech	Leanne is on a mission to help women tech leaders and entrepreneurs overcome challenges in tech. More than 2,000 startups with groundbreaking technologies have been recipients of She Loves Tech which helps with mentorship, skills-training and investor connections.
70.	ROSICH, MERI	CDO, Vice-President/Head of Data Science, Visa Consulting & Analytics, Asia Pacific	A data strategist who has founded startups and worked with large organisations, Meri is also a Women in Tech community advocate. She mentors, speaks at events and serves on boards like the Global Data Literacy Project and the UN Women STEM programme. She is co-founder of the Female Founders think-tank.
71.	SCHULZ, ANNELIESE	President, Asia-Pacific, Software AG	The youngest regional president in Software AG's history, Anneliese spearheads its APJ business operations driving growth and emphasising the expansion of its partner ecosystem. She advocates women empowerment and leads her regional team in practising diversity and inclusion which she believes are key innovation and growth enablers.
72.	SHEN, SHENG MEI JANE	Chief Scientist of Pensees Technology, Managing Director of Pensees	Jane is an award-winning deep-tech expert in computer vision, deep learning and AI with over 300 patents filed by her or her teams. In just her first year at Pensees in 2019, she led her team to establish seven academic world records.
73.	SHIVKUMAR, SUGANTHI	Former Managing Director, ASEAN, India and Korea (Rest of Asia), Qlik	Suganthi puts her people first and it has paid off with Qlik ASEAN clinching the "top performing region" in 2019. She lobbies for workplace inclusiveness and believes diversity goes beyond gender and extends to culture, language and different workstyles.
74.	SHREE, NYHA	Co-Founder and CMO, Jumper.ai	Nyha has the heart of an entrepreneur, hands of a techie and head of a businesswoman, successfully taking start-ups from ideation and scaling them up.

			Under her leadership, Jumper.ai has engaged with innovation programmes at firms like Unilever, Facebook and PayPal.
75.	SIA,SERENE	Managing Director, Autodesk, ASEAN	For over 25 years, Serene has worked in the largest business-software companies and has a reputation for delivering outstanding results and building strong teams. She believes talent development is critical and companies need to adapt to build the workforce of the future.
76.	SIEW, YIM CHENG	Chief Technology Officer, Comfort-Delgro	As ComfortDelGro's group chief digital officer Yim Cheng drives the transport company's transformation roadmap and products by overseeing its future ventures and the technology-related arena. Prior to this move, Yim Cheng led the development of AI-IOT, creating smart products for smarter cities at Envision Digital.
77.	SOH, SIEW CHOO	DBS Bank, Managing Director, Group Head of Consumer Banking and Big Data/AI Technology	Siew Choo drives the digital transformation at leading financial services group DBS by leveraging agile, cloud computing, big data, AI, and machine learning, even as she focuses on increasing the representation of women in tech.
78.	SRIDHAR, RAMA	Executive Vice President, Digital and Emerging Partnerships and Real Time Payments, Mastercard	Rama drives Mastercard's business opportunities in tech, creating business units that enables fintech and develop real-time payment infrastructure. She gives back to the community as a Sub-Committee member of the Singapore Future Economy Council and sits on the board of the ASEAN Financial Innovation Network.
79.	SUN, ANGEL	Director, SGW Engineering Pte Ltd	Angel is a young entrepreneur with tech startups in various sectors. She employs tech in smart construction for better customer experience, utilises big data for cross border logistics, renovation and interior design work using AR/VR technologies and cloud-based applications.
80.	SUN, POCKET	Founder, SoGal Ventures	Singapore-based Pocket is a venture capitalist and entrepreneur, with a mission to support women and under-represented founders with a network, capital and access to global markets. Her female-led venture capital firm, SoGal Ventures, has grown to influence over 50,000 female entrepreneurs in 40 countries.
81.	TAN, BIN RU	CEO, Southeast Asia, OneConnect Financial Technology	Bin Ru has over 22 years of experience in sales and operations. Her career has seen her helping MNCs including Microsoft and HP as well as start-ups develop successful sales strategies, achieve digital transformation and improve operational capabilities.
82.	TAN, CHARMAIN	CEO, Quickdesk	While running her first company, Charmain discovered that many startups faced challenges in optimising their sales capabilities. She seeks to help SMEs automate and digitise their sales processes. In 2019, she was listed in the Forbes "30 Under 30" Asia - Enterprise Technology list.
83.	TAN, CHERYL	Co-Founder and Business Director, Clozette	Cheryl left a cushy MNC job in 2010 to co-found Clozette, a start-up that helps brands connect with new consumers. Its 130 employees across Asia have enabled more than 300 international and local brands, powered by Clozette's proprietary content management system that marries the best of editorial and user-generated content.

84.	TAN, LYNETTE	Chief Executive, Singapore Space & Technology Limited (SSTI)	One of the few female CEOs in the space industry, Lynette has transformed her organisation into the toast of international space agencies around the world. She also works tirelessly to advance the role of women in the space arena.
85.	TAN, MEI HUI	Cybersecurity Specialist, GovTech	Mei Hui leverages her doctorate in machine learning and computer vision to build up her cybersecurity specialisation. She is also an executive committee member of the SCS' Cybersecurity Chapter and pursues her passion to inspire the next generation of female tech professionals by mentoring secondary school students.
86.	TAN, VIRGINIA	Founder, Teja Ventures	As a thought leader and community builder focused on technology, innovation and empowering future women entrepreneurs across Asia (including Singapore), Virginia is a sought-after investor, mentor and advisor on fundraising, strategy and technology business models. She also co-founded non-profit organisation She Loves Tech, which runs the world's largest startup competition for women and technology.
87.	TAN, YEN YEN	Independent Director, OCBC	Yen Yen has broken every glass ceiling with numerous achievements, accolades and awards throughout her storied career. She is a seasoned board director and contributes actively to the community. Yen Yen contributes to the industry by mentoring younger techpreneurs.
88.	TANG, JIAHUI	Strategist, Trust And Safety, Google	Jiahui works on developing algorithms that create a safe cybersecurity space. She also volunteers in various teaching events such as International Women's Day, Google's Machine Learning course and serves as a committee member for the Grace Hopper Conference.
89.	TAY, HWEE SHAN	Co-Founder & Director, Loshberry	Hwee Shan runs an education company that inspires young people to take on interest in computing. She has mentored girls who are interested in technology through her classes and other community initiatives, advised a student team through the NUS Overseas College programme and taught coding workshops pro-bono with GirlsInTech Singapore.
90.	TEO, LAY LIM	Senior Managing Director Asean And Singapore, Accenture	A veteran tech leader, Lay Lim has inspired many women to take up careers in the STEM fields. She is a steering committee member of the Infocom Media Masterplan, and co-chairs the Modern Services Sub-Committee for the Future Economy Council.
91.	TEO, SHARON	Co-Founder, Inspire-Tech	Sharon is a co-founder and CEO of Inspire-Tech which aims to inspire ideas and imagination through smarter solutions. Through its convergent technologies that enhance productivity and workforce efficiency, she future-proofs organisations by revolutionising their digital workplace.
92.	TEY, SHUWEN	Director, Sensors Division, DSO National Laboratories	Shuwen has risen through the ranks in the male-dominated arena of defence. She is responsible for multiple breakthroughs in defence technology and has amassed considerable experience in master-planning and managing R&D investments to deliver cutting-edge capabilities.
93.	TOMASZEWSKI, JULIE	INTERPOL / Innovation and Technology Crime Officer	Working at the INTERPOL Innovation Centre in Singapore, Julie is currently preparing the 3rd INTERPOL - UNICRI Global Meeting on AI for Law Enforcement in which she will, together with participants, ideate and discuss AI-enabled tools and solutions to advance the use of AI by law enforcement.

94.	WONG, SHIRLEY	Managing Partner, TNF Ventures	A seasoned entrepreneur, Shirley helps startups secure funding, access resources and go to market. She serves on several boards including the IMDA, Singapore Science Center and Assurity Trusted Solutions.
95.	WU, CHOY PENG	Chief Technology Officer, GIC	Choy Peng sets the strategic direction and provides integrated oversight for technology and data analytics for GIC. A noted female tech leader in Singapore's ICT industry with vast experience spanning the public and private sectors, she is also a Board Member of National University Health System (NUHS) and Integrated Health Information Systems (IHIS).
96.	WYER, TINA	Managing Director, Asia Head of Corporate Technology and Singapore Technology Center Lead, J.P. Morgan	Tina drives corporate technology strategy and initiatives for J.P. Morgan regionally. She advocates for a diverse workforce, finding time to personally coach and sponsor women at all levels. Tina is also a board member of TeSa, a SkillsFuture initiative that helps achieve Singapore's vision of building a digital economy.
97.	YANG, YINPING	Senior Scientist, Principal Investigator & Group Manager, Institute of High Performance Computing, A*STAR	Yinping has a knack for tackling worthy problems that require innovative solutions – like teaching a computer to negotiate with a human or understand sarcasm. Her passion is to develop intelligent technologies for high-value industry and societal applications.
98.	YEUNG, YEE WAI CHERRY	Group Director, Operations, Azendian Solutions	Cherry has excelled for 16 years in the field of Information Technology with a passionate focus on data and analytics. She leads and mentors a team of 35 high-achieving, young professionals who help clients become "Digital 4.0" ready.
99.	YIM, PATRICIA	General Manager, IBM ASEAN	One of the women pioneers in the tech industry in South-east Asia, Patricia has led teams across Asia. She strives to raise the number of women in tech, whether within IBM with its Diversity and Inclusion agenda or developing technology skills through various programmes aimed at students.
100.	ZHANG, YVONNE	Chief Executive Officer & Founder, Aquifer Institute Ltd and Director, Deloitte & Touche Enterprise Risk Services	Yvonne's impact on the development of standards in the tech industry is influential and far reaching, contributing to new international standards. She is passionate about her work and believes in eliminating environmental and social externalities through legal and financial structuring.