EXEMPTIONS

Sections 13(1), (3) and (4) of the Films Act shall not apply to or in relation to any exempt video recording that is imported by sea, land or air.

Section 14 of the Films Act shall not apply in respect of the possession by any person of any exempt video recording.

Section 21(1) of the Films Act shall not apply in respect of the possession, distribution or reproduction by any person of any exempt video recording, subject to the condition that the exempt video recording shall have affixed on its casing, wrapping or container giving such information relating to the contents of the video recording as the Board may require.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Films (Exempt Video Recordings) Notification 2013 shall not exempt from the provisions of the Films Act any film for exhibition in a cinema or theatre or other similar premises, any party political film, any obscene film or any film prohibited under section 35 of the Films Act or any act in relation to any such film.

DEFINITIONS

“video tape” or “video disc” means any film produced for distribution to the public as a video recording (whether on video tapes, digital video discs or otherwise).

“documentary record” means a non-fictional record of actual persons, events or situations, and includes a program the sole or dominant purpose of which is to depict actual, contemporary events, people or situations in an entertaining way or with a heavy emphasis on entertainment value;

“television series” means 2 or more episodes that are produced wholly or principally for exhibition to the public on television under a single title, that contain a common theme or themes and dramatic elements that form a narrative structure, and that are produced wholly or principally for exhibition together, for one or more markets;

“completed” means —

- (a) for a video tape or video disc that is not a television series or a season of a television series — when it is first in a state where copies of the video tape or video disc can reasonably be regarded as ready to be distributed to the general public;
- (b) for a video tape or video disc that is a television series — the time when the television series is first in a state where it can reasonably be regarded as ready to be distributed, broadcast or exhibited to the general public; or
- (c) for a video tape or video disc that is a season of a television series — the time when the season is first in a state where it can reasonably be regarded as ready to be distributed, broadcast or exhibited to the general public.

(2) IMPERMISSIBLE MATERIAL

The following are considered “impermissible material” as referred to in the definition of exempt video recording in accordance with the Films (Exempt Video Recordings) Notification 2013:

- (a) any matter likely to cause offence to any race or religious group in Singapore;
- (b) any matter likely to cause feelings of enmity, hatred, ill-will or hostility between different racial or religious groups in Singapore;
- (c) any religious teaching or instruction;
- (d) any matter —
  - (i) directly or indirectly counselling or urging the doing of any unlawful act or providing instruction on the doing of any unlawful act; or
  - (ii) directly praising the doing of an unlawful act in circumstances where there is a risk that such praise might have the effect of leading a person (regardless of his age or any mental impairment that the person may suffer) to engage in the unlawful act;
- (e) any depiction or description of sex, sexual matters or nudity of any kind (including images of persons in titillating attire);
- (f) any coarse language, or any depiction or description of acts of torture, cruelty or violence (whether or not sexual) or of abhorrent phenomena, whether natural or pertaining to the supernatural; or
- (g) any express or implied reference to, or comment on, any candidate, any political party, any election, any referendum, any member of any Legislature, any government or previous government or any opposition to any government or previous government, whether that candidate, political party, election, referendum, member of any Legislature, any government or previous government or opposition is in Singapore or elsewhere.
