

99th Academy Awards International Feature Film

IMDA is the official selection body for the 99th Academy Awards International Feature Film. The selection committee for this submission will consist of members of the Singapore Film Commission Advisory Committee (SFCAC), who meet the guidelines listed by the 99th Academy Awards.

Call for Submission:

We would like to invite eligible Singapore feature films who wish to be considered for selection in the International Feature Film category to submit their interest via FormSG. The rules for eligibility can be found on the Academy Awards website.

The selection committee will view all eligible submissions and individually vote for the film that they deem most suitable. The selection committee chairperson will also chair a discussion, if necessary, for the committee to reach a final decision.

To submit a film for consideration, please complete the linked FormSG.
