

LIST OF QUALIFYING FILM FESTIVALS/EVENTS FOR DEVELOPMENT-ASSISTANCE (SHORT FILM)

In order to be considered for a Development-Assistance (Short Film) grant, an application must meet all of the eligibility criteria outlined below:

1. The director must have directed at least one short film;
2. The director must not have directed any feature-length film (typically 70minutes or more);
3. At least one of the director's short films must have been screened or received an award at any one of the film festivals/events listed below.

International

- A film festival listed in the FIAPF-Accredited Festivals under the section 'Documentary and Short Film' view [list]
- A film festival listed in the Academy Awards Short Films Qualifying Festival List (with the exception of Cannes Film Festival Short Film Corner) view [list]
- A film festival listed in the Academy Awards Documentary Short Subject Qualifying Festival List view [list]
- Asiana International Short Film Festival
- Bucheon International Fantastic Film Festival
- Busan International Film Festival
- Fribourg International Film Festival
- Holland Animation Film Festival
- Hong Kong International Film Festival
- Jeongju International Film Festival
- Jogja-NETPAC Asian Film Festival
- Rotterdam International Film Festival
- Taipei International Film Festival
- Tallinn Black Nights Film Festival (including the Sleepwalkers International Film Festival)
- Telluride Film Festival
- Thai Short Film and Video Festival
- Toronto International Film Festival
- Tropfest Australia
- Vladivostok International Film Festival

Local

- Singapore International Film Festival
- National Museum's Singapore Short Cuts
- National Youth Film Awards (NYFA)
- ciNE65 Short Film Competition
- DigiCon6 Asia Awards
- Objectifs Asian Film Focus
- mm2 Movie Makers Short Film Competition
- Singapore Heritage Short Film Competition
- 20/20: The Temasek Short Film Project
- Singapore Short Film Awards

For more information, see the D-Assist (Short Film) application guidelines or email to SFC@imda.gov.sg