IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- 1 IMDA had removed the Morse code requirement for HF amateur radio operations with effect from 15 September 2003. As such, the Practical Examination on Morse code is no longer required for new applicants of the Amateur Station (General Class) Licence. The Radio Amateur Examination is a written examination (the "Written Examination") that is conducted by Singapore Amateur Radio Transmitting Society (SARTS) on behalf of IMDA.
- 2 Candidates who intend to register for the Written Examination may apply to IMDA by completing the attached application form. Examination will be held once a month on the second or third Saturday from 10.00 am to 1.00 pm at Sun Business Services, 42-A Upper Dickson Road (Level 2), Singapore 207499. The Written Examination's schedule is appended in the application form.
- 3 Upon receipt of a valid registration, IMDA will inform the candidate of the date, time, venue of examination and payment of examination fee in due course. Please note that the examination fee will not be refunded to a candidate who withdraws or fails to attend the Written Examination.
- 4 Details and syllabus for the Written Examination can be found in the Radio Amateur Licensing Handbook which is downloadable via the IMDA's website (URL: <http://www.imda.gov.sg>).
- 5 The fee is as follow:

Radio Amateur Examination:	$40.00 – Adult
	$20.00 – Student
